ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce that A. D. BARNETT
As a candidate to represent one of the Lower Houses of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the several party.

The remains of W. T. Taylor were laid away at St. Paul Saturday, with military honors.

There are harbingerings of spring in the air, and the great American is already enjoying in full flower the blossoms of the temper flowers and the adjournment of Congress.—(Owenwood Impartial.)

But Kentucky's Candidates Convention meet early on.

EX-LIEUT. GOVERNOR R.
MAN is the latest candidate of the office of Governor. If there was a time when he could win, that time has passed. He who will have his strength in the Convention, and may be able to change the fortunes of the other aspirants. The Louisville Convention this year will be an interesting one from the beginning. Those who hoped for free silver coinage by the present Congress, have hoped in vain. The House committee having the Senate bill in charge reported adversely. Still, the Republicans are unanimous of the verdict of the people last November. The Democratic party favors free coinage, and the next Congress will probably settle that question for the good of the country.

EX-GOVERNOR CHARLES FOSTER, of Ohio, has been appointed Secretary of the Treasury to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Secretary Windom. His status as will be his Secretary, and that his views are in harmony with those of the Administration. Gov. Foster is a gentleman of information and broad experience and in a fitting successor to Mr. Windom.

The Constitutional Convention at last found one subject left willing to trust to the Legislature, and that was divorce. The consideration of the question consumed one whole day, and at the close of the discussion they relegated the whole matter to the Legislature. If this were now only leave a few more things to the Legislature, the people would think better of the new Constitution they are making for us.

The next meeting of the State Teachers' Association at Henderson city, promises to exceed in importance any meeting of the Association. W. T. Harris, U. S. Commissioner of Education, will attend and discuss the subject: "Psvchology for Teachers." W. E. Taylor, of the Nebraska State Normal, and W. W. Parsons, of the Indiana State Normal, will also be present and take part in the exercises. The teachers over the State will also take an active interest in the meeting.

The dispatches from Washington say that radical changes have been made in the paragraphs relating to the World's Fair. The appropriation for the Government exhibit is reduced to $350,000 to $200,000. The appropriation for the $100,000 of this sum for the Latin American department is struck out. The unexpected balance, appropriated by the Act of April 25, 1890, reappropriated for the purpose of aiding the Government exhibit solely, except that from it may be paid the salaries for the current fiscal year of the President of the Commission, President of the Board of Lady Managers and expenses for clerks and employees and Board of Lady Managers, not exceeding $35,000. In place of the specific appropriations made for salaries by the House, the lump sum of $100,000 is to be expended under the supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury. A provision is inserted, as follows:

"And the several sums hereby appropriated for the World's Exposition shall be deemed a part of the sum of $1,500,000—the limit of liability of the United States on account thereof, fixed by the Act of April 25, 1890."
